

People Management Policy

SENERGY SERVICES is founded on hiring talent and excellence; it is on this principal we believe true differentiation in the oilfield services market can be achieved. The open mind out of the box" Creativity is our driver to ensure we can deliver solutions to our clients no matter what the challenges maybe.

In a tremendously challenging sector Senergy Services expects its employees to stand up to the challenge and deliver beyond expectations. To sure this we must develop our talent to be equipped with the knowledge and tools to tackle any problem. Based on this we are committed to:

- Employ talented people.
- Hire locally in the countries we operate.
- Task orientated environment.
- Develop both technical knowledge as well as soft skills.
- Promote and celebrate diversity.
- Deliver better than market packages.

We believe if the talent in the market is captured and exposed to our management policy then great deliverables can be expected, these deliverables are appreciated, acknowledges and rewarded.

This policy applies to Senergy Services and all Subsidiaries
